Summary of the Role and Responsibilities of a Board Member

The WSLR+Fogartyville Board of Directors is answerable to the public. If you are appointed to the Board, you will be entrusted with the welfare of the radio station and community center, and your job is to see that it is successful, responsive to the community, and fulfilling its mission. Much of the work of the Board is done within committees and task forces. Board works through agreement of mutual respect generally leading to an equitable consensus rule.

Specific responsibilities of the Board include: clarifying WSLR+Fogartyville’s mission; approving long range plans; ensuring legal, fiduciary and ethical integrity; fundraising; enhancing the public image of the station and community center; hiring the management team and monitoring their job performance; and, recruiting and training new Board members.
